- This request form must be filled out completely, legibly, in printed capital letters, and sent electronically to the support@funcode.hu by the customer with a handwritten signature.
- The Merchant makes a repurchase offer for the tickets indicated on the request form in accordance with the general terms and conditions applicable to the service. A detailed description of the service can be found on the www.funcode.hu website
- The request form, which is filled out incorrectly, incompletely, illegibly or contains false information, will not be processed by the merchant. It is not possible to correct, modify or stumble data on the request form afterwards. The merchant does not send a notice about the shortage. The request form and the data contained therein shall not be replaced by any other document. The Merchant shall not be obliged to collect data.
- The user of the service acknowledges by signing this request form by their own hand and sending it to the merchant that they had become familiar with the General Service Conditions of the service and agrees with its content. The user of the service acknowledges that the merchant requests the data indicated on the request form to the extent necessary and sufficient, in a literal sense, in order to ensure the service, to ascertain the legality of the claim, to check the entitlement of the claimant, and to compare it with the data collected during the purchase of the ticket. The privacy policy is available on the merchant's website.
- The merchant reserves the right to unilaterally suspend or terminate the repurchase service in part or in full, with no special information, and to unilaterally modify the events and/or admission tickets included in the service.
